

Compensation Administration

---

A company's philosophy related to compensating its employees is a major factor in attracting and retaining quality employees. Human Resource Partnerships helps answer the questions like: How much do I pay a new employee? How often do I give merit increases? What should I use to review job performance?

Services:

- Job description design and development
- Pay structure and compensation strategy design and implementation
- Compensation market studies
- Performance review design and implementation